

Name: _____

INFERRING ASSESSMENT

Read the following clues below and infer where I am and what I'm doing:

1. I see bubbles rising. I hear my own breathing. There are fish swimming ABOVE me. I feel the seaweed swaying. Where am I and, what am I doing? _____

2. I hear screaming. My stomach feels funny. My hair is blowing around. I feel EXCITED! Where am I, and what am I doing? _____

3. I hear a loud "wack" as the ball flies through the air and the crowd roars with cheers! Where am I, and what am I doing? _____

Super Challenge:

4. It's so dark in here. There is a squeaky sound. Oooh, I feel something sticky and stringy touching my face. I'm getting scared! Where am I, and what am I doing? _____

Read the following and write down anything you infer.

5. Ray ALWAYS carried his trumpet with him. What can you infer about Ray? _____

6. After Jill broke the trophy, her father turned and walked away without saying anything. What can you infer about Jill's father?

7. Grandma's jaw dropped open, her eyes got big, and her hands flew to her face. What can you infer about how Grandma is feeling?

Super Challenge:

8. Two friends are caught in a rainstorm and only one has an umbrella. Neither of the friends are getting wet. What can you infer from this? _____

Great job!! If you are inferring that I'm proud of you, YOU ARE RIGHT!