VISUALIZING ASSESSMENT

Read the short phrases below then either draw a picture of what you visualized or write words to explain the picture in your mind. Circle the words that helped you create your picture.

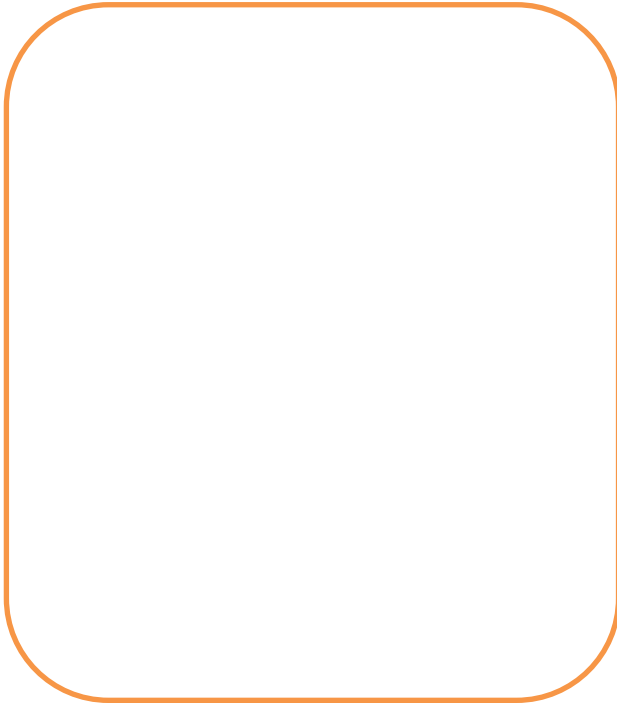

Ryan arrived at the farm and saw an old red barn extremely tall. He thought it must be older than his great-grandpa. The barn door was white but the rest of the barn was a worn looking reddish color. There was a broken wooden door, high up in the barn, and he thought he saw bats flying around inside. It amazed him that the barn still looked friendly and inviting, not scary at all.

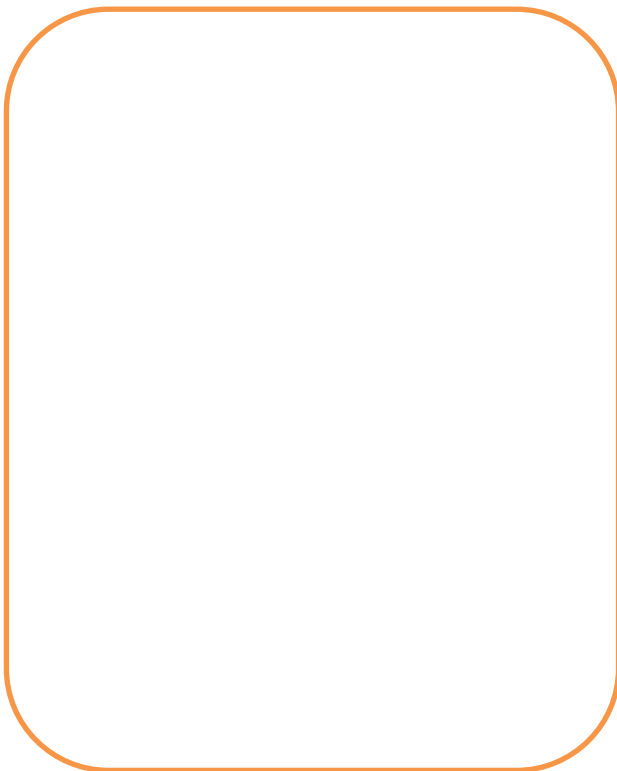

The stranger walked into the room, wearing a long brown coat that had seen too many winters. His shoes looked like they had walked more miles than anyone Brad had ever met. Most of all, the stranger had this look in his eyes...the look of hope. Maybe he needed help? Could Brad help him?

SUPER CHALLENGE YOURSELF:

As Annie walked in, she saw people waiting impatiently in a long, slow moving line. Where do you think she was at? What do you picture in your mind?

Who would have thought this would have been such a perfect day? Balloons floated every place I looked. The sky was so calm, not even a leaf rustled in the wind. My stomach fluttered with excitement—I was flying so high in the sky! I heard the soft puffs of air from the balloon, but I knew I was safe in the basket. Where am I?
